Pasadena Fire Department is proud to announce a Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) Class beginning October 6, 2017, co-hosted by Fuller Theological Seminary and Kaiser-Permanente. The first 2 class sessions will be conducted on the Fuller Theological Seminary campus. The final class session will take place at Pasadena Fire Station 33, located at 515 North Lake Avenue, Pasadena. Here are the dates and times:

- Friday, October 6, 2017
  7:45 am to 5 pm
- Friday, October 13, 2017
  8 am to 5 pm
- Monday, October 20, 2017
  8 am to 3:30 pm

Participants must be pre-registered, and must complete all class sessions to receive a Certificate.

In this CERT class you will develop skills to help you be better prepared to take care of yourself and your family when disaster strikes, no matter where you are – home, work or play. The coursework follows the FEMA curriculum and includes or addresses the following subjects:

- Disaster Preparedness
- Fire Safety/Fire Suppression
- Light Search & Rescue
- Disaster Medical Operations
- Disaster Psychology
- Terrorism
- CERT Organization & Incident Command System

The final day of class includes a disaster drill, giving participants an opportunity to put what they’ve learned in class into action.

Class Size is Limited – First Come, First Served

TO REGISTER PLEASE EMAIL:
PasadenaCERT33@cityofpasadena.net

In your email, please provide your full name, address and best contact number. If you are affiliated with one of our co-hosts, a business or educational institution in Pasadena, or are a City employee, we’d like to know that too.

Information to help you be ready for the classes, including where to park, will be provided about 1 week prior to the first class session. There is no fee to attend this CERT course.